

IG Markets Singapore iPhone App Now Available

Clients of Contract for Difference (CFD) trading company, IG Markets, can now access the company's mobile dealing platform through a newly-released iPhone trading app.

Singapore (Vocus/PRWEB) February 14, 2011 -- Clients of Contract for Difference (CFD) trading company, IG Markets, can now access the company's mobile dealing platform through a newly-released iPhone trading app. Available free of charge from the AppStore, the application not only lets clients place trades and work orders on CFDs and Forex, it also provides access to live prices on the full range of markets, a comprehensive suite of charts, forex commentary updated twice a day, and real-time news headlines from Reuters.

Peter McDermott, Managing Director of IG Markets Singapore commented "the release of the iPhone 4 has really cemented the iPhone's popularity in Singapore. Since 2009, our award-winning platform has been available on iPhones, but releasing it on a custom-built app makes mobile trading much faster and easier than ever before for our clients with iPhones and iPads."

"IG Markets has a lasting commitment to providing our clients with the most advanced, most user-friendly technology possible, to support and inform their CFD and Forex trading decisions. We're delighted to launch this exciting new iPhone app, which strengthens our reputation for providing leading dealing software and competitive pricing" Mr McDermott said.

With the IG Markets trading platform on their iPhone, traders can now:

- Place FX/CFD trades on the full IG Markets range of instruments – including over 60 currency pairs and over 7,000 shares, indices, commodities and bonds
- Open, edit and close FX/CFD positions and orders
- Add stops and limits, including guaranteed stops
- View customisable watchlists and charts
- View real-time account balances and FX/CFD positions at a glance

An innovator in its field, IG Markets has offered mobile trading since 2004. In addition to the iPhone app – which is also compatible with Apple's iPad - IG Markets CFD trading platform is also available on BlackBerry devices, PDAs and other smartphones, including Android-based handsets.
